

INFORMATION LETTER

We invite you to take part in the IV Russian Congress on gerontology and geriatrics with international participation, which will be held in Moscow on may 21 - 22, 2020.

The Congress will be held with the support of the European society of geriatric medicine (European Geriatric Medicine Society, EuGMS) with the participation of leading experts in the field of gerontology and geriatrics from Russia, Armenia, Belgium, great Britain, Holland, Italy, Israel, Norway, USA, France, Japan, freelance geriatric subjects of the Russian Federation, representatives of the departments of social protection of population, non-profit organizations, charities and social businesses.

Main topics of the Congress:

- organization of geriatric care;
- diagnosis, prevention and management of frailty and other geriatric syndromes;
- treatment of chronic non-communicable diseases in older adults;
- international experience in the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of dementia;
- national programmes for the prevention of falls and fractures;
- geriatrics in Oncology;
- nutrition in older adults;
- rational pharmacotherapy and deprescribing in geriatrics;
- education in geriatrics;
- nurses in geriatrics;
- long term care;
- community care

The program of the event will present the latest achievements in the field of gerontology and geriatrics, the organization of geriatric services in different countries, in the format of interactive discussions will discuss new scientific data and clinical aspects of the management of elderly patients.

The program of the Congress includes an educational block for nurses and social workers.

The Congress is included in the plan of scientific and practical activities of the Ministry of Health of the Russian Federation, the Department of Health of Moscow.

The Congress is an educational event, the application for accreditation of full-time education is submitted to the Coordination Council for the development of continuous medical and pharmaceutical education of the Ministry of health of Russia.

New knowledge, fruitful discussions and interesting communication are waiting for you.

Detailed information about the Congress and terms of participation can be found on the website: <http://geriatrics-conf.ru>.